DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The Examiner acknowledges receipt of the information disclosure statements submitted June 9, 2005 and February 2, 2006. The Examiner has considered each of these information disclosure statements and attached the completed Form PTO-1449(s) to this Office action. US Patent No. 6,162,305 was cited in the information disclosure statement submitted June 9, 2005. However, based on the European Search Report submitted February 2, 2006 it appears that applicants may have intended to cite US Patent No. 6,162,306. In view of this, the Examiner has cited US Patent No. 6,162,306 on the Form PTO-892 attached to this Office action.
3. The information disclosure statement filed June 9, 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. In the instant case, the Examiner did not receive copies of references AL, AM, AN, AP, AS and AT.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1 to 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Takajo et al. (Takajo '179, EPO Document No. 0 915 179 A2, cited in the IDS submitted February 2, 2006).

Takajo '179 teaches electromagnetic steel having a composition that is encompassed by the instant claims (paragraphs 0019, 26 and 38). Takajo '179's steel has an electrical resistance of 60 $\mu\Omega\text{cm}$ or more (paragraph 0019) which is exactly as recited in the instant claims. Takajo '179 also teaches at least one specific example that is encompassed by the disclosed process and the process recited in process claims 6 to 10 (paragraph 0028) including a final annealing step wherein the annealing atmosphere is hydrogen (paragraph 0028 and 0048).

The claims and Takajo '179 differ in that Takajo '179 is silent with respect to the number of nitrides containing chromium.

However, one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would have considered the invention to have been obvious because the alloy composition taught by Takajo '179 has a composition that is encompassed by the instant claims and is made by a process which is the same as applicants' process of making the instantly claimed alloy. In view of this, the alloys taught by Takajo '179 would be expected to possess all the same properties as recited in the instant claims, including the number of nitrides containing chromium, In re Best, 195 USPQ, 430 and MPEP 2112.01.

"Where the claimed and prior art products are identical or substantially identical in structure or composition, or are produced by identical or substantially identical processes, a prima facie case of either anticipation or obviousness has been established, In re Best, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977). 'When the PTO shows a sound basis for believing that the products of the applicant and the prior art are the same, the applicant has the burden of showing that they are not.' In re Spada, 15 USPQ2d 655, 1658 (Fed. Cir. 1990). Therefore, the prima facie case can be rebutted by evidence showing that the prior art products do not necessarily possess the characteristics of the claimed product. In re Best, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977)." see MPEP 2112.01.
